Extension Activities:

Taking time to READ each day is the most important way to build a love for reading while improving vocabulary, fluency, and comprehension. Take some time to write in a journal. Additionally, OPTIONAL, ungraded activities and access to Study Island, Readworks, and IXL will be made available for your student until the end of the school year. I have provided extra optional activities for this week's lesson on Main Idea. It will require extra time from the student, so please remember that it is optional. I do not want to stress out parents or students!

Week at a Glance:

Thank you so much for a wonderful Teacher's Appreciation Week! I am so thankful to have an amazing group of students and parents. We are truly in this together!

This week's lesson is geared towards Author's Organizational Patterns, or Text Structures. Remember, text structures refers to how a text is built, or structured. If we can figure out how the text is structured, then it actually is a lot easier to find the Main Idea of a text. See how this fourth quarter review is tying everything together? :-). This week we will focus on the first few organizational patterns: chronological, sequential, and description. Next week, we will focus on problem and solution, compare and contrast, cause and effect, and generalization. Students, you will either watch the video or navigate through the Power Point, then answer the questions on Quizizz. Your class Quizizz codes can be found on the Suggested Learning Activities Document and in the Posts on Teams. I also found a way to add the codes to the video, so they are posted there, too!

As always, if you have any questions or concerns, please email me directly and I will get back to you just as soon as I am able.

Extra Practice Activities- Organizational Patterns:

Finished the Power Point lesson and/or watched the video?
Finished the Quizizz on Organizational Patterns/Text Structures? Looking for more optional learning at your own pace? Login to Readworks, read the article "Escape From France," and answer the questions. Still want more more? Complete your example passage. Feel free to send your paragraph to Mrs. Nichols for feedback!

The optional and interest -based only writing group began to answer the prompt, "Should students be able to grade their teachers?" We began with a hook, transitional sentences, and a thesis statement. Students also were able to review the steps to writing a multi-paragraph essay. This week, students will expand their thesis with one or more supporting paragraphs. Next week, we will review a strong concluding paragraph. Students in the interested writing group will move on to debates at the end of May!

Message from Marsteller's Librarians:

Dear Bulldogs,

For Monday's activity, I've created a Power Point and PDF called "Trivia From Around the World Part 1." I hope you enjoy it!

Trivia From Around the World Part 1

One of Mr. Livengood's students asked for some "happy" books, so I came up with a list that Mr. Livengood calls "Pick Me Up Pages."

Happy Reading!

Ms. Gillespie & Ms. Williams

Pick Me Up Pages

Ban this Book by Alan Gratz- An inspiring tale of a fourth-grader who fights back when her favorite book is banned from the school library--by starting her own illegal locker library!

Death by Toilet Paper - Donna Gephart- Fans of How to Survive Middle School will welcome the adventures of a contest-crazed seventh grader who uses his wits and way with words in hopes of winning a big cash prize to help his family avoid eviction.

Fuzzy by Tom Angleberger- When Max—Maxine Zealster—befriends her new robot classmate Fuzzy, part of Vanguard One Middle School's new Robot Integration Program, she helps him learn everything he needs to know about surviving middle school—the good, the bad, and the really, really, ugly.

Ghost by Jason Reynolds (series) - Can Ghost harness his raw talent for speed and meld with the track team, or will his past finally catch up to him?

Middle School, the Worst Years of My Life by James Patterson- It's Rafe Khatchadorian's first day at Hills Village Middle School, and it's shaping up to be the worst year ever. With his best friend Leonardo the Silent awarding him points, Rafe tries to break every rule in his school's oppressive Code of Conduct. Chewing gum in class--5,000 points! Running in the hallway--Pre-K0,000 points! Pulling the fire alarm--50,000 points!

Midsummer's Mayhem by Rajani LaRocca - Can Mimi undo the mayhem caused by her baking in this contemporary-fantasy retelling of Shakespeare's A Midsummer Night's Dream?

My Life as a Potato by Arianne Costner- For anyone who has ever felt like a potato in middle school, this hilarious story about a boy forced to become the dorkiest school mascot ever will have readers cheering!

My Seventh Grade Life in Tights by Brooks Benjamin- All Dillon wants is to be a real dancer. And if he wins a summer scholarship at Dance-Splasion, he's on his way. The problem? His dad wants him to play football.

New Kid by Jerry Craft- Seventh grader Jordan Banks loves nothing more than drawing cartoons about his life. But instead of sending him to the art school of his dreams, his parents enroll him in a prestigious private school known for its academics, where Jordan is one of the few kids of color in his entire grade.

Pie in the Sky by Remy Lai - Told in prose and graphic novel elements, this middle-grade novel is about a boy's immigration experience, his annoying little brother, and their cake-baking hijinks!

Restart by Gordon Korman - From the #1 bestselling author of Swindle and Slacker, Restart is the spectacular story of a kid with a messy past who has to figure out what it means to get a clean start.

Roller Girl by Victoria Jamieson- Astrid has always done everything with her best friend Nicole. So when Astrid signs up for roller derby camp, she assumes Nicole will too. But Nicole signs up for dance camp instead, and so begins the toughest summer of Astrid's life. But then she learns how to be a tough roller girl.

Slider by Pete Hautman - Competitive eating vies with family expectations in a funny, heartfelt novel for middle-grade readers by National Book Award winner Pete Hautman.

Space Case by Stuart Gibbs (series)- It's a murder mystery on the moon in this humorous and suspenseful space adventure from the author of Belly Up and Spy School .

The Miscalculations of Lightning Girl- Stacy McAnulty -Lucy Callahan was struck by lightning. She doesn't remember it, but it changed her life forever. The zap gave her genius-level math skills, and ever since, Lucy has been homeschooled. Now, at 12 years old, she's technically ready for college. She just has to pass 1 more test — middle school!
